

CONSIGNMENT DETAILS:

How to explore consignment sales with us:

- Call or email Crosshairs Texas with photos or a full description of what you want to sell. Our knowledgeable staff will assist you in setting a reasonable price that is in line with the overall value of the gun and any included accessories (magazines, original box, optics, owner's manual, etc.) We will discuss what you have, possible price ranges, and whether we think we can do a good job selling them for you.
- If we agree that we are a good match for your needs, we will make arrangements to pick up the items, or request you to ship them to us by insured UPS.
- Since customers are buying from us, our reputation is on the line. We will describe items to the best of our knowledge and belief, and will not misrepresent items for a seller. We will not take items on consignment at prices that we think are unrealistic or unfair to the buyer.
- We normally contract for a consignment period of 60 days to sell your items. This allows time to research them properly, advertise them in catalogs or by other means, and offer them at appropriate collector's shows. This also allows time to drop the price to the minimum level if unsuccessful selling at a higher starting price. In our experience about 80-90% of properly priced items will sell in that period.
- We are responsible for the security and safety of your items while in our possession, and will give them the same secure storage as our own inventory, covered by insurance for the consigned value.
- When your item is sold (customer has paid for it, it has been delivered, and the three-day inspection period is over) we will credit your account at Crosshairs Texas for the sales price less the commission. Our normal commission rate is 20% of the actual selling price.
- We will gladly provide contact information of previous consignment customers as references.
- Remember, there is no charge unless your item sells. Give us an opportunity to help recycle those items for another collector to enjoy!
- Once a price has been set for your firearm, you will need to agree to our Terms of Consignment sign a receipt to transfer the firearm to us so we can put it on display as a consignment sale. We will put your firearm out on display at our store and work to sell it for you.
- Once we have a buyer, we will require the buyer to fill out all the usual paperwork just like purchasing a new firearm. So you can rest assured that whoever purchases your firearm is doing so within the law.
- After the sale has been finalized, we will contact you to deliver payment.
- Selling a firearm can be a hassle. Let the experienced staff at our gun store do the work of selling your firearm for you. All you have to do is wait for a call from our gun shop letting you know your firearm has sold!
